

QLGF

Quaker fellowship for Friends of all sexualities and gender identities

Dates for your diary in 2015

SPRING GATHERING: SATURDAY 11 APRIL 2015 ALL DAY

Brighton Quaker Meeting House, Ship Street, Brighton.

A gathering to reflect on contemporary LGBT issues.

- Being Human, Being Spiritual – religions and sexual minorities - Harvey Gillman, Quaker lecturer and author
- Quakers on Equality and Prejudice – where we are now and where we may be in the future - Jessica Metherringham, Parliamentary Liaison Officer, Quakers in Britain
- Transgender lives: a Quaker perspective - with a speaker from Quakers and an account of the pioneering Clare Project in Brighton

More details on booking price and programme to follow shortly.

AUTUMN GATHERING: SATURDAY 31 OCTOBER 2015 ALL DAY.

Manchester Quaker Meeting House, 6 Mount Street, Manchester.

This will be a gathering devoted to transgender and gender-variant experiences, in personal, social and spiritual contexts.

More details on speakers, programme and booking will be published in due course, but please save the date.