

be strong and let your heart take courage psalm 31:24

blessed are the brave

a retreat for lgbt affirming faith leaders

Many people of faith do not feel represented by the public voices that decry LGBT lives, loves and stories. However, it can be difficult to find support and solidarity.

Corrymeela is delighted to invite you to this residential retreat weekend. It will be a time to learn from and deepen our commitment to LGBT voices of faith.

We will find strength in the brave example of Jesus of Nazareth and other biblical characters. We will organize together and we will pray for the courage to be proud and affirming voices of faith.

When: January 25-27 2013

Where: Corrymeela Centre, Ballycastle, Co. Antrim, Northern Ireland.

Time: 7pm Friday 25th Jan- 2pm Sunday 27th Jan (all food included)

Email: retreats@corrymeela.org

Cost: £75 per person sharing

If this cost is prohibitive for you, please contact us as we have limited bursaries available. Please do not let cost keep you from this weekend.

